WELCOME

The Congregational Church of West Medford, United Church of Christ extravagantly welcome all people; believers, non-believers, doubters, questioners, no matter who they love, their gender identity or expression, their race, culture, ability, or economic circumstance. All are a blessing to our journey of faith and we seek to share God's love and grace with all.

We pray that you might meet God here today—and connect with another seeking the same.
We invite you to participate in the acts of worship that work for you and encourage you should you choose not to participate in others.

Prayers of the People: Joys and concerns are often offered openly as an act of worship. Our pastor and deacons pray these requests through the week. You are also welcome to request prayer via the blue sheet in your bulletin, leaving it in the offering plate or with the pastor or a deacon. Please note if any requests are confidential.

GATHERING TO PRAISE GOD

Welcome, Church Life and Mission

Declaration of Purpose

Call to Worship

One: God, whose creative glory we see in the rushing wind and the swirling waters,

All: and whose love is revealed in the smile of a child, will remain with us.

One: God, whom we have discovered in the scriptures, and who has discovered us,

All: and who comes clear to us in Jesus and in the lives of the saints, will remain with us.

One: God, whom we encounter in the worship and service of faith communities,

All: whose Spirit is within the pastoral caring and the justice-seeking of this church, will remain with us.

One: God, gracefully known in the hard places of our earthly life's journey,

All: and who laughs and celebrates joyfully with us here, will remain with us.

One: God, who will be with us as this life ends,

All: who is with us in time and beyond time, will remain with us.

One: Let us worship our loving and faithful God.

The Word from the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures

Words of certainty from the apostle Paul:

Neither death, nor life...nor things present, nor things to come...nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:38–39)

Words of compassion from the psalmist:

Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff—they comfort me. (Psalm 23:4)

Words of adventure from Genesis:

Now the Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you...I will bless you, and make your name great.” (Genesis 12:1–2)

Words of thanksgiving from a gospel writer:

Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God...He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. (Luke 17:15–16)

All:        The words of scripture are good words for us, words we can trust.
We thank God for God’s eternally relevant Word. Amen.

Litany of Thanksgiving

One: (Chancel): The baptismal font, the communion table, the pulpit, this whole worship space, enable us to thankfully remember the countless services of worship and sacraments celebrated in this place, and to bring to mind the ministers and lay leaders who have led worship.

(time of silent remembering)

One: For this worship space, Loving God,

All: We give you thanks.

One: (Pews): These pews/chairs and the worshippers here today are reminders of the congregations who have gathered over the years for Sunday worship, for the baptism of babies, to mourn the dead and create new families through marriage. We remember the grace of vows of love and honor, of sermons preached with power and passion, of missionaries being sent to serve, of transitions and confirmations and other celebrations that have taken place here.

(time of silent remembering)

One: For worshippers over the years, Loving God,

All: We give you thanks.

One: (Church School Symbols): The spirit of our founder Rachael Barnes, the lap top which gives us access to Forming Faith.Net, crafts, curriculum, Christmas pageant costumes already moved down the street—all are reminders of the hundreds of students who over the years have begun their Christian journey in this place.

(time of silent remembering)

One: For wonder-full young persons, Loving God,

All: We give you thanks.

One: (Kitchen Symbols): This book of directions for how to set up the suppers, this coffee urn, and this box of coffee hour supplies bring to mind the many happy times of eating, learning, and working together.

(time of silent remembering)

One: For a caring and giving fellowship, Loving God,

All: We give you thanks.

Hymn

“At the Font We Start Our Journey” Stanza 1 & 2

308

One: (Bible Study Materials) This Bible and this Crossroad's study-group material remind us of much laughter, much earnest discussion, many good friendships forged as we met together.
(time of silent remembering)

One: For learning and for friendship around the table, Loving God,
All: We give you thanks.

One: (Music): This song reminds us of the congregation, the choir members, the organists, the pianists, and all the other musicians who have proclaimed their faith here in hymns and songs.
(time of silent remembering)

One: For voices in harmony, for voices united, Loving God,
All: We give you thanks.

One: (Symbols of B&G) This hammer, this broom, these blueprints are symbols of the many hours dedicated men and women put in over the years to maintain this building.
(time of silent remembering)

One: For hard work inside and outside the church, Loving God,
All: We give you thanks.

One: We come together with so many good and treasured memories, but with a strong sense of grief at saying farewell to this hallowed place. We come together, also, with great hope for continuing our life of faith—Being Sanctuary, United Church of Christ. For the life of this faith community which will continue on, Loving God,
All: We give you thanks. Amen.

A Prayer of Letting God

One: There may be disappointment, resentment or even anger that you have expressed around the closing of this church—or perhaps you have held these negativities tight within yourselves.

All: We let go of our disappointments and anger, we accept Christ's way of reconciliation, renewal and peace.

One: There may be inaction that has held you back, there may be apathy that has bound you in the sale of this church building and the changes proposed for the future.

All: *We let our apathy and inaction go, we are ready to work with new Christian friends in a new situation.

One: There may be a sense of “What might have been,” that you have clung to, a reluctance to face the realities of the faith community.

All: *We let the old possibilities go, we are ready to grasp fresh possibilities as members of another faith community.

One: There may be a clinging to familiar patterns of worship, a clinging to familiar ways of serving in the community.

All: *We let our patterns go, we are ready to serve with new friends in new ways.

We will now have two minutes of silent reflection.

*During this time you may offer God the feelings, emotions, and attitudes that you wish to let go.
We trust God will accept them and deal gracefully with them.*

A word about the cleansing power of salt.

One: Feelings have burned hot and strong among the members of this faith community.

All: *The cooling Spirit of God’s peace is among us now. Amen.

Words of Assurance

One: God hears our deepest feelings of heart and mind and spirit and has heard you this morning.

All: *We will continue to offer ourselves and out true feelings as we let go of this faith community. God will continue to listen to us.

One: God will go with you in your new ventures of life and faith,
God is eternally to be trusted.
God’s peace, which passes all knowledge and understanding,
will be your peace.

All: *Thanks be to God. Amen.

Moving on in Faith

Rev. Wendy Miller Olapade

Rev. Wendy Vander Hart

One: When the chosen people left the land of Egypt for the uncertainty of the wilderness,

All: You, O God, went with them. You inspired and directed Moses and the people to the Promised Land. You will be with us now as we move on.

Two: When the prophets knew for certain that the old values and traditions would no longer serve your purpose, nor bring closer your realm,

All: You, O God, showed the doubters a new way, and revealed fresh opportunities to the closed-minded. Ever-faithful God, you will be with us as we move on.

One: When Jesus realized that the trusted structures and the traditional leaders could no longer serve your purpose,
when Jesus knew it was time for a change,

All: You, O God, were at the heart of his ministry, you sustained him all the way to the cross.

Two: We move on to fresh ways of worship,

All: We move on to serve in new faith communities and as Sanctuary United Church of Christ.

One: We move on to work with new partners to build up the city of Medford, the United Church of Christ and of the whole church of Jesus Christ.

All: With you, we move on to strive for justice and peace in our local community and throughout the world.

Two: We move on to sing the familiar hymns with familiar friends,

All: With you we move on to sing new songs with new friends. Amen.

Please collect your belongings, your bulletin, a hymnal and any other symbol of our worship that you can carry. We will walk together to 458 High Street, where our worship will continue with Holy Communion and a commissioning of our new space. If you need a ride, please speak up.

All are invited to a celebration and brunch in our new home:

Sanctuary, United Church of Christ

Songs for the Journey:

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be,
as long as life endures.

Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
and mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil,
a life of joy and peace.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

Somebody Prayed for Me

Somebody prayed for me
Had me on his mind
Took the time to pray for me
I'm so glad he prayed,
I'm so glad he prayed,
I'm so glad he prayed for me.

The preacher prayed...

My mother prayed...

My father prayed...

My sister prayed...

My brother prayed...

Dear Jesus prayed...

This Little Light of Mine

This little light of mine
I'm gonna let it shine
This little light of mine
I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

Every where I go...

All through the night...

All around the world...
